

Directive for Governing Sons

November 6, 2024

The morning after the 2024 Election, I began to journal. As I asked what Heaven had to say to me, I heard to following:

The sons are to govern, regardless of who wins the race, for they are the ones who will ultimately win. It is not a time for the church to lie down and take a nap. That happened four years ago because of assumptions concerning the prophetic—that if a thing is prophesied it will come to pass regardless of other considerations. That is rarely the case. Most prophecies contain human involvement. The church has not known how to respond to the prophetic and words given. Most are conditional on the cooperation of certain parties.

My sons have been given four years to mature in these matters. Hopefully they will not become lazy or slothful at this time. It is a time to rebuild the nation economically and in other ways. Great wisdom is needed in this time. There are those who have postured themselves to be part of his administration who have no business being involved. They are saboteurs and spoilers.

The angelic transition team that was mentioned last night will need the cooperation of the angels of the saints and of the saints themselves for the right ones to be chosen and for the ones chosen to have the courage to stand with Mr. Trump as he stands in the Office of President of the United States of America. As you refer to him in that manner you are reinforcing the return to greater unity than has been the case for several years in this nation. Stand with him and bless him, his family, and his administration. Commission angels to stop those who would make it difficult for the incoming personnel to do their job effectively. Stop the destruction of documents (in every form) that the current administration would seek to have destroyed because of what it entails.

Put restrictions in the spirit on the release of those who are dangerous to society who would seek pardons from Mr. Biden. Cut off the activities of those who in nefarious ways would cause harm and seek to jail Mr. Trump for alleged crimes that are not crimes, but expressions of jealousy and hatred. Release balms of healing to the nation. Speak peace to the nation just as you have been doing for the last few years.

Release strength to Mrs. Trump. She needs angelic assistance, and her angels need shoring up as do Mr. Trump's angelic entourage. Angelic participation will be of great value in the coming days, months, and years. Their angels need backup. On their behalf, request backup angels to assist while their angels are in recovery. Do this on their behalf.

Call for the secret things of Mr. Trump's enemies to become unveiled. Commission angels to undo the stonewalling of justice by certain ones connected to the current administration. A cleansing of the seats needs to become whole scale and broad on national, state, and local levels. Much corruption has been released in the last few years that needs to be curtailed. Court work can see that done.

Begin even now to pray for the arising of the men and women I want in positions of authority in the next election cycle to be prepared and protected. Spoilers exist who would seek to entrap those surrounding Mr. Trump and his future administration. A supernatural wisdom and cunning needs to be in place by Mr. Trump and his closest advisors. He needs to be open to the voices of the sons who have great wisdom to share with him. He needs more wisdom now than he did eight years ago. Work with Lady Wisdom to assist Mr. Trump and his inner circle. Involve the Seven Spirits of God in the transitions. My sons can do this as you have a voice in the matter because of your citizenship. Pray for them, bless them and deal with the accusations that have been flying back and forth over the last season. Let them come into power with clean slates and lifted false verdicts. Get those things undone in the Courts of Heaven. You and your team are some of the sons who know how to do these things.

I will elevate some to do this concerning things not spoken of in the press for they need to be dealt with discretely and not become public knowledge. How you handle matters of secrecy will be a proving ground for many among you. You must know how to be discrete. It is vital. Remember, My Word that says, "Surely the Lord GOD does nothing, Unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets." (Amos 3:7)

Build a screen around Mr. Trump that only those for whom it is written in their scrolls become a part of his team. He needs no spoilers in his camp or those who would do him harm. He needs men and women who are as bold as a lion but carry great wisdom.

Pray for Mr. Vance in this time as well that he would have an encounter with the Father—he and his wife. Pray for their children that they would be graced and protected for the transitions they are going to be going through the next few years. Much will be expected of all of them. Grace must cover them. The sons must see to that.

Many have sought for this for a long season. Now, rise responsibly as sons and take your place to govern from afar in the realm of the spirit. Do governing things in time and out of time and in every age, realm, and dimension. Pay attention to the call to govern. Pay attention when you are called to judge. Judge with discretion and judge with love.

Govern the voices of the media and the trumpeters who sound the wrong frequencies. Assign angels to release tempering sounds and overriding frequencies to bring peace and not chaos to the nation and its citizens. This is the start of a new day. A reset button is being pressed in the spirit. Align yourselves with the new timing of the Lord, only in this time you are moving forward and not backwards according to the clock.

Follow Heaven's instruction concerning forthcoming court work, so the reset has full effect upon the nation. Borders will be closed, and departures will begin for many. In the next two months the current administration will seek to open floodgates to border crossers, but release opposing floodgates so that those efforts will fail.

- Call for an outcry against the foolishness of those who would leave the gates open, and the doors unlocked.
- Call for righteousness to prevail in every arena.
- Call for an end of those who would oppose the transition from the Biden Administration to the Trump 2.0 Administration. He is anointed for this hour. He needs to be able to flow unhindered in this next season.
- Call for an end in the courts of the frivolous, time-wasting lawsuits. Request their removal to the Court of Frivolous Lawsuits where they can be dismissed and defeated. It is time for the foolishness to end. Legislate concerning the people who are troublemakers for either the removal of the person or the removal of their influence. May every door of opposition be closed to them.

A distaste will come into the mouths of the American people concerning the incessant harassment of Mr. Trump and those surrounding them. Let it arise for it is time for the foolishness to end.
