

Hedging Your Bets

By Lisa Eichelberger

The enemy doesn't want us to enter into God's promises for our lives. To block us from the fullness of God's word coming to pass in our lives, the enemy hedges bets against us that we won't take God at His word. The bets he hedged against us block our view, so we lose our expectations and faith in God's words and restrict what God has for our lives.

The American Heritage Dictionary says a bet is "an agreement between two parties that the one who has made an incorrect prediction about an uncertain outcome will forfeit something stipulated to the other; a wager."

Bets were placed on the prayers put on record in the Court of Supplications & Acquisitions regarding promises for our lives. I was instructed to remove the bets placed by the enemy, the agreement made with an incorrect prediction, and repent for agreements with the outcome that God's word would not be completed like He said it would be. The enemy wanted me to agree with his outcome that God's word would return void in my life. Much like a lien, when the enemy hedges a bet against you, and you agree with him, it prevents God's word from doing what it was sent to do.

On the ledger in the Court of Supplications, a gold bond appears when the prayer has a bet against it that gets resolved. It is literally and figuratively a "surety bond." This is not only a bond you can issue, but it is the assurance of heaven that it will be completed. When you have a financial investment with a bank, it is backed by the governing body. There is assurance to protect your assets. His Word is the assurance that He will do what He said. It's backed by the authority of heaven and the treasuries of heaven that provide all of the resources to outwork His word.

I was also shown that when you sow into something by faith, you add currency as if you were making a deposit. I understood that the entries on the ledger in the Court of Supplication & Acquisition had money deposited by our faith and stewardship of the word He gave us. When you contend for it, stand in faith, watch over it, agree with it, and steward the prophetic words and promises over your life, you add currency to your prayer that you can cash out. We can “cash out” what we’ve sown by faith to “cash in” on our investment.

Just as we can trust that God’s word can be trusted, we also can pull down what has been sown into heaven to “harvest” it as “all bets are off.” As the bets were removed, I was instructed to “cash out” what I had sown in faith from the ledger as evidence of what the Father said and how I agreed with it.

Steps to Address Bets:

1. Request access to the Court of Supplications & Acquisitions
2. Ask to see if any bets are on your ledger
3. Request access to the Court of Cancellations to repent and cancel the bets
4. Return to the Court of Supplications & Acquisitions to cash out the trades

Courtroom Scenario

Court of Cancellations

I request access to the Court of Cancellations. The enemy has formed a hedge around our ability to see what God is doing in our lives. He has created a shield that blocks us from seeing God’s purposes manifest in our lives. Your honor, He detests the Father and His will and will do whatever he can, legally or illegally, to keep us from advancing into what you have said. The enemy has hedged his bets against us, betting that we will not agree with the word the Father gave us. He made a bet against our prayers and the prophetic words we’ve been watching over that we would not trust that God would perform His word. We are requesting that all bets hedged against us be canceled.

It says in Jeremiah 1:12 that you watch over your word to perform it. You ensure that what you said is completed. In Numbers 23:19, you make good on your word to us.

In each place where we have agreed with the bets the enemy has hedged against, where we have assumed that you would not make good on your word, we repent. Where we have agreed with the enemy’s plans against your word and agreed with his bet that we would not agree with what you have said, we repent. We repent for doubting your word, your goodness, your ability to perform what you said, and believing the lie that you do not make good on your promises. We repent for believing that your word would return void in our lives. Please forgive us for doubting your goodness and the assurance of your word. We repent for putting any bets on others or situations by our agreements with the enemy.

We request that the all-consuming fire of God destroy every bet placed against our prayers and every hedge placed around our faith, expectations, and ability to see what you are doing. I request the Lumberjack angels take an axe to the root and tear down the hedge, shielding us from seeing the completion of your word. Please cancel all ramifications, consequences, trades, taxations, and impacts from his bets against us.

Court of Supplications & Acquisitions

I request access to the Court of Supplications and Acquisitions. Based on the work done in the Court of Cancellations, I ask that you remove all bets on our ledger. We do not agree with the enemy's lies that our Father will not complete what He said He would do. We sow our faith as our assurance that He can be trusted to perform His word and His word will not return void. According to your word, you will perform your word. You watch over your word more than we ever could. You ensure that it performs and does as you have instructed it. You make good on what you have said.

I request to cash the check the Father wrote on the words that you have established over our life that are due now! We cash out what has been sown in faith, tears, and prayers to cash out the Father's supply. All that is available to us on our ledger request would be dispatched for delivery to bring all things to completion based on the following:

Jeremiah 1:12: "Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to perform it."

Numbers 23:19, "God is not a man, that He should lie, Nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do it? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good and fulfil it?"

Isaiah 55:11 says, So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; It shall not return to Me void, But it shall accomplish what I please, And it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.
