Miscellaneous Revelations

This blog comes from Chapter 23 of Engaging Heaven for Revelation – Volume 1.

This chapter will cover a variety of topics uncovered during our engagements with Heaven. These were often interactions related to our ministry and things we faced. We share them so you can learn some of the concepts taught by Heaven.

During one such engagement, Ezekiel made it clear that there is one thing he wants to help define for us. That is the fact that, while he often comes and requests particular things which we can request from the Father on His behalf, Heaven continually provisions and re-provisions him as an angel assigned to his rank. He feels this is true for every angel.

"Our increase," Ezekiel said, "comes from your commendation, but it also comes when you request special things for us. Please understand, this does not mean that we always need you to ask on our behalf, because the heavenly Father has well provisioned us for our tasks and what we need. Your spoken requests, or sometimes your suggestions on when to do a thing or what to do (for instance, when you command us to come and put a demon in chains, or to assist you in the unseen with a particular thing)—we are always interested in doing that because this includes us in what you are perceiving from the Spirit of the Lord. It completes a circuit and puts us all in agreement. We are always in agreement with what the Father is saying. Therefore, you do not sense I need very much provisioning today, even though you are wondering, 'Well, I thought you would need it because you have been under all this activity.'" But Ezekiel said, "Where Heaven sees a deficit, Heaven fills it for the angelic ranks. Do not get me wrong. If you were to stop what you have been learning to do, we would notice its lack."

He continued, "We do experience emotions about these things, but our emotions are different than those of humans on God's earth. Our emotions are much more in line with the activity of Heaven and its realms. Remember, I am using language you can understand, but we are aggrieved, or rubbed the wrong way, by humanity's actions sometimes. This has made angels among us go astray and has caused interference within the ranks. However, our purpose in assisting you is always aided when you assist us. This is what we all hope to do to accomplish the work of the Kingdom. It has magnified

His glory and the manifestation of His name. Get ready. This will only increase in days ahead. There are some things that are like what was seen in the past, but many things in the future are brand new, with the past providing a launching point for the new.

"I'm going to ask you for a new weapon, mainly because I want you to know that I have this weapon. I call it an intelligent rifle. You might call it a smart gun. It is laser equipped for realms of darkness. It assists us in plunder, in freeing, in taking back territory that has been controlled by darkness (although it never belonged to darkness), and in ensuring the new territory regained stays gained. You can just take this at face value. Some things you don't need to wrap your mind around because there is really no equivalent in your understanding,"

We were also aware that Ezekiel knows exactly what he needs to do, but he enjoys the commission that we give him to go on patrol.

Lydia instructed, "Request of the Father greater wisdom in the use of your communication devices. Be aware that spying and infiltrating through deceptive means is occurring. Pray over the devices, asking angels for help with technology. Know where the Father is at work even now to expose those in your world who are using technology for illegal trades in things like spying, garnering information that is not theirs to garner, and other such activities. Pay attention to other options and areas where these are lessened.

Praying in Tongues

"Praying in tongues is so important," Lydia explained. "Praying in the spirit language is communicating in a code that the devil often cannot decipher because it is of Holy Spirit. It is important and wise to speak this manner of language in your atmosphere consistently and at every prompting of the Spirit of the Lord for you to do so.

"The Spirit of the Lord will prompt you to speak in tongues in advance of things that you cannot yet see, and as a measure of protection for what you will walk into. It is a roadmap for solutions, resolutions, and introducing the solution into the physical realm. It comes through your mouth. If you do not speak in tongues, ask the Lord for this gift.

“He dwells in you and often needs to speak, directing the spirit realm and what it contains in ways that are often mysterious to your understanding.”

Angelic Perceptions

Ezekiel had just appeared to us and was unusually brilliant in appearance. Here was the interchange:

“I’ll tone it down a little for you,” Ezekiel commented.

The seer with me responded, “I am amazed how you’re able to do that, Ezekiel.”

He answered, “All angels are able to do this. To speak with humanity, we can do what you call ‘dial down’ the Glory and do it with ease. Angels want to have relationship with you, and they will do these things to enable that relationship.

“You have requested things on my behalf. The other end of that spectrum is my work from the King of Glory on your behalf. It is a cycle of return that works together. Do not mistake that he is always at war or warring. That would be an incorrect understanding. Just now, you are seeing me relaxed in the realms of Heaven,” he finished.

The seer responded, “So, I can meet with you in the realms of Heaven like this, and in the next moment I can see you standing here in my space. I still use the same spiritual eyes, but you are closer now. When you dial it up, I recognize your presence here in my office, like you are standing here at the end of my desk. Then, at some point, you step back into the realms of Heaven, but I can still see you there. It is as though you are standing next to the Help Desk and talking to me. “

“This is how angels come and go into your realm,” Ezekiel affirmed.

Speaking to Ezekiel, the seer noted, “You are in a higher estate, but you can always manifest in a lower estate. The cloud of witnesses can do that as well. That is interesting. You are giving me the understanding that it is twofold. We have been talking about stepping into the realms of Heaven, but you are saying that it is really doubled.”

He answered, “We are doubled because you can perceive when the realm of Heaven intersects or manifests in the natural. You can see and sense it with spiritual senses. It is the same, but different.”

“That is a cool exercise to have your angel come near and then have that angel step into the realms of Heaven,” the seer mused. “Then, you step in there to see the same being through Jesus, the door. Whether your spirit is here or in the realms of Heaven, you can engage both ways. You can do it quickly.”

Relationship Building

In this engagement a vision of a Rolodex™ [1] appeared. While we were wondering what it meant, Lydia began to explain that the Rolodex represents relationships to our ministry. Some relationships need to end, and other relationships need to be solidified through heavenly trade. Still other relationships need to be guarded and some need to be built. We trade here from Heaven with the Father for the benefit of these relationships, which is that formal network that strengthens. Since relationships are things that angels assist us with, we simply need to request that Ezekiel assist us.

“We are learning about relationships and that you can help us with this. Lydia has been talking about how we do this with you,” the seer began.

“I am a relationship arranger. I have access to this Rolodex. I know what is pending to leave, what needs to stay, and what needs to be enriched for the ministry to carry out the purpose of the Father as an ambassador of the kingdom,” Ezekiel informed us. “I am able to accomplish some rearranging on your behalf, and while I carry this charge out in the background, like Lydia is mentioning, sometimes there will be key times where you’ll ask me to perform this duty with specificity.”

Lydia spoke up, “You have a moment of opportunity now when you can ask Ezekiel and his team to finalize the order of the relationships that LifeSpring needs to have. This has already begun happening for you as we have worked together, but a new installment of additions, subtractions, and clearing up of some things is needed. That is what we can accomplish together today."

"This is like a commissioning of me," Ezekiel added.

Lydia told us that it is quite simple. We only need to say to Ezekiel, the angel of LifeSpring International Ministries:

> We commission and charge you to your duty of relationship order and to order relationships for LifeSpring those relationships that will bring benefit of the Father and the blessing of the Father to the ministry.
> We ask you to circumnavigate the realms and bring these in.
> We ask you to solidify those in our relationship base with whom the Father is pleased.
> We ask you to transfer out all unnecessary relationships or those relationships causing theft of resources, time, and finances.
> We ask you also to clean out debris from those relationships. If the relationship has an ending time in Heavens' scrolls, we request that you abide by the Father's Word in this and bring these relationships to finality and to an end.
> We bless those who have walked with the ministry for a time and release them with blessing to their next assignment and season.
> We ask Ezekiel to perform the act of sentry at the Gates of the Realm of LifeSpring International Ministries, that no relationships which are not written by the Father or according to divine will be allowed access to the realm either as customer, client, friend, employee, or those aligned as students.

[Take that prayer and customize it to your situation].

Basically, we are asking Ezekiel to swab the decks and to bring into right order the tightened relationships that our Father desires our ministry to have. Clear out the old, bring in the new, and help us establish with solidarity the relationships of people who are already connected to us.

Ezekiel added, "What you're asking me to do is to basically 'spit shine' the relationships at the ministry."

Get under the Waterfall

Changing topics, Lydia spoke, “I’ve come from fresh counsels of the Lord. His counsels are true and full of hope. Do not be greedy but recognize the overwhelming access you have here to trade with the Father, from His realm that is being given in this hour.

“A flow of revelation and understanding coupled with His wisdom, His power, and His might is flowing to earth realm in new and dynamic fashions. The Father desires His sons and daughters in the earth to look up and receive the reign of His beneficial release in this hour. The saints will need this in coming days because all things are becoming new. Unless one has received the new and its accompanying thinking and pathways, one runs the risk of getting caught in old seasons.”

In this hour, getting caught in old seasons is not the plan of the Father.

She continued, “He has been releasing teaching to His children and now they must go forward with Him and expand with Him in new revelation. These are revelatory understandings about who He is, who they are, what they exist for. These are new understandings of the perfection of His design and the perfection of His plan. His plan is of ancient ages before time began in the earth realm. Its combination of a marker in an era of time has come and is now.”

She continued, “To those who have come near this ministry, hear this:

“Your people are invited to receive abundance and joy, as well as to learn to operate from these things first to enjoy the benefits of the Father as He has purchased you with His Son’s own blood. The dynamics of the new era are what you would call rather intense, but Satan’s work is like a dam to block up the release of Heaven’s flow. That dam will not stand. You simply must put your hand out, touch it and it will dissipate. It is an illusion. Many who do not meditate upon their beds with God lose access to what is being released, because they are not positioning themselves to be a vessel to be filled with it.

“Urge your people to spend time with God. Urge them to give themselves permission to expand beyond the boundaries of their religious training and explore what Yahweh has these days. Be filled with a revelatory flow that will cause you to wonder at its comparison to the trickle you had before now that it has become a fountain and a waterfall. Get under the waterfall. Receive your bounty from your Father. He has no limit. You have not understood this. He has neither limits nor limitations. As King, He accomplishes from His Kingdom realm every desire of His heart.

“Many of your people want to know what God is doing in this hour. They have panicked thoughts and many doubts. They must discipline themselves to put this aside and look up, look beyond, look to the Kingdom of God, look to the realm of the Father, and receive what is being poured out. One of the biggest things that you can help them with in this hour is to learn to receive the new understandings that are coming from Heaven.

“A great many answers to prayer are coming. They will need to be received in a different manner. Some of them will manifest on their own. With others of them, the Father is releasing the answers to His people, but they are not receiving them. This is due to the manner or the newness in which His desire is drawing them to receive. They are trying to remain in old patterns, old thoughts, and deeds, and even relationship and geographical spaces that hinder the receipt of the new flow and ease coming to His people from Heaven.

“In fact, the answers that He is releasing require you to position yourself under an open Heaven to learn, and to receive His direction, instruction, moments, timing, new thoughts, and new thinking. This is going to require you to turn away from the world; not leave the world but turn away from as many distractions as possible. Release to your people the gift of Heaven. Afford them the capacity to see their habits from a new perspective, from a new view, and from a different lens.

“If they will press into that, they will find the motivation to make changes. The flesh lags in this, and often the soul finds comfort in the old, but the new is what the spirit receives and hungers for. This is possible for them in this hour.

“There are many ways that the Father brings these new revelations to help His people make a shift and a change. They come from dreams, visions, knowings, thoughts, signs, wonders, and miracles. By all of them, the Father is bringing His people out from the old and into the new." She reminded us, "Remember how the Father brought the children of Israel out of the slavery of Egypt into the purification process of the wilderness and the promise of the new to cross over into? It is going to be like that."

Bond of Filtering & Bond of Undoing

On this day we engaged Heaven and they were concerned for one of our team members who is a resident of the State of New York. They gave us the following instructions that will be beneficial to you. For this article I will refer to him as Jesse. Here was Heaven's instruction:

"Jesse needs a thing called 'undoing.' It is like quieting. It is an activity of angels.

"Think of where Jesse lives. He is in the state of New York, which is under some principality thrones and some witchcraft, specifically a Jezebel witchcraft spell. The realms of those who carry the Father's light feel the resistance in the spirit realm to their light."

Writ of Undoing

Heaven elaborated, "Undoing is a work of angelic hosts to undo spells of witchcraft. When you become aware of witchcraft activity through human agents and the voices of those aligned with darkness, angels can be requested to operate. You can request this as an amendment to a court case and you can also appear in the Court of Angels to request a Writ of Undoing. It is easier for angels to operate undoing through paperwork that comes from other court cases and you can request of the Father that the angels carry out this Writ of Undoing."

"Do not play with this one," Heaven warned. "This is not something to be done on a whim. This is something to be done only when you have been told to and when you are assured that witchcraft is in play. The human soul cannot lead you to the accuracy of this discernment. You will need to discern it by the spirit.

Bond of Undoing

"If you see witchcraft bonds in the Bond Registry, you can request a godly Bond of Undoing. It is a bond at that point. Requesting this bond on the Bond Registry releases the paperwork to angels to carry out the undoing. It is immensely powerful. You can use it as a defense item and as often as necessary but let me be clear with you—do not guess at this!" Heaven cautioned.

Bond of Filtering

"I want to tell you about another bond, which is called the Bond of Filtering," Heaven continued. "This bond also releases powerful paperwork to angels on behalf of the individual. A Bond of Filtering it is going to help your physical atmosphere so that your spirit is more able to discern spiritual things. You may have to work with this one for a while to realize how it works. A Bond of Filtering is for the purpose of angelic activity in that person's atmosphere to cause discernment and revelation to be at a higher level. It enables the atmosphere to carry spiritual discernment and spiritual knowing at a higher upgraded level.

Working in Tandem

"These bonds are often found together or are good to use together because they can work in tandem. When you have been told that there is witchcraft at play, you need the Bond of Undoing. You can also subsequently ask for the Bond of Filtering as that causes a filtering in the spirit that angels are helping with so that the human spirit is catching, grasping, and knowing, so that they become more aware of what is going on. A mature saint operating under the Bond of Filtering is then enabled and empowered to be their spiritual self with their spirit forward and to operate from that route from the Father's realm. This may also help with their dreaming during their night seasons."

With one more question, our engagement was over. "This is when you expose the enemy's work so that you can employ the use of the angelic host?" we inquired.

"Yes," was Heaven's reply with no further explanation.

We have learned that if Heaven does not explain to you that day, they probably will soon. Just keep listening for it.

May this understanding broaden your work in the realms of Heaven as we see captives set free!

Being Rescued

Ezekiel had one more thought to share, “Thank Jesus that a person willing to remove themselves from the kingdom of darkness has but to cry to Jesus and ask him to rescue them. The words, ‘Jesus, I need you to rescue me and save me,’ are the words angels hearken to bring human bloodlines and human minds out from realms of darkness. We hearken to these words quickly, and we like them. We are designed to hear these words. Calling upon the name of Jesus begins the process of this.”
