

Restoration from Cloning: Guidelines for Freedom

Questions:

Do you feel fatigued regularly?

Have you been diagnosed with Chronic Fatigue Syndrome, Guillain-Barré' Syndrome, Epstein-Barr, or something similar?

A colleague had been holding onto an amazing encounter for a few weeks now because I wanted to make sure she understood it fully before sharing it. It brought clarity and direction regarding what's been happening with a family member. We are sharing it because there is a protocol shared with us from Heaven that you may be able to use in specific circumstances. There are many involved in similar situations.

The colleague had heard her family member call to her on two different locations and saw them performing slave labor on another planet. Both of those were dream-awakening experiences, not times when our colleague "stepped into Heaven."

In this encounter, Heaven gave her insight into what was going on with the family member, especially the reason behind one of their biggest struggles—chronic fatigue. The explanation made complete sense, and our colleague was also given a specific protocol to follow on his behalf.

They followed the instructions exactly as shown and waited quietly, not telling anyone, to see what would happen.

Then, a few days later her family member, without knowing anything about the colleagues encounter told them they have had more energy the last few days and has been feeling much better.

Our colleagues told them they had done some court work on his behalf a few weeks prior, and it would affect their energy if it were true.

The family member said, “Well, it must've worked. I've felt good the last two weeks, really, haven't needed a nap or anything.”

The Backstory:

Our colleague stepped into Heaven for the protocol to deal with this phenomenon known as cloning.

They asked: “Abba, will you lead and teach me about the Elohim’s slavery of humanity. Will you show me if I am or was involved, and the same for my family member? Why have I heard them calling out to me in my sleep, and why did I see them imprisoned on a planet working hard labor?”

Our colleague was asked, “What if there was another you, in another place?”

“What?”

“Well, you already understand the soul can be splintered. If your soul was splintered, and the Elohim had your DNA, could they not create a similar body to yours and have a soul splinter (mind) run that body?” Do you think, because of what you know about quantum physics and connection, that all the bodies with the same DNA might have an antenna and a connection to be able to communicate with each other?”

She replied, “I suppose so. But this sounds incredulous. This sounds like a sci-fi movie. This sounds like something I would make up if I wanted negative attention. (I don’t, seriously. I don’t want this kind of attention at all.)”

Abba continued: “The slavery of mankind goes way beyond subterranean tunnels and the crimes against children you’ve been awakened to. The beings who have enslaved you have technology that is light-years ahead of you. What seems like a sci-fi movie is technology these beings were using even thousands of years ago. Don’t think of technology as a barrier to what can be possible. What I am describing to you has great shock value to you but is old hat to them.”

She replied, “So, I have been cloned? My family member has been cloned? Others have been cloned?”

Abba replied, “Why do you think they want your DNA? This planet has become a manufacturing planet for them to provide slaves to other beings in other universes. Humans are the most desired of all slaves because they have a divine spark within them. You can create reality, but that creative power is easily controlled when you do not know who you are or what you possess. So other controlling beings want you as slaves so they can use that creative power within you to create the timelines in their worlds. Is this too much for you yet?"

She replied, "No, please keep going."

Abba continued, "Slavery is nothing new. The technology for cloning is not new. In general, the original-born human is kept on this Earth, leading a regular, boring life. The clone bodies live off-planet and believe they are the lone body. They are often told Earth is uninhabitable, or that something happened there. These slaves work on (space) ships or other planets as slaves. Truth is not known. Lies are lived. Their power within is harnessed and used to create futures for those who enslave you. Some are Elohim-like, others are not Elohim-like at all.

"You are more powerful than most of the races that enslave you. You have portals within you that allow your spirit to travel to heavenly realms. They do not have this. You are using that portal now to be here with Me. They cannot do that.

"You can speak with and communicate with the clones because, legally, they are still you."

Our colleague exclaimed, "What?"

Abba replied, "I know, dear one. This is a lot. But I want you to start to grasp what you are dealing with... what humanity is coping with... the scope of the problem.

"When Satan wanted to enslave the world, he used all of his creativity and resources to do so. He took with him the technology level of Heaven. He was not an ancient Greek being in robes... He is suited in a uniform aboard (what you would call), a (space) ship. You need to update your mental image of him. The ancients dealt with the bene Elohim and revered them as gods because their technology was so "sci-fi" and they had no words for it.

"The true story of the slavery of humanity has so much more to it than just a spiritual significance. They literally physically enslaved humanity and treated you as cargo and cattle off-world.

"This is a terrible crime, and all of Heaven is affected by it. All of Heaven is grateful to my son, whom you know as Jesus, who stepped out of His own realm into yours, to receive the scroll and rescue all of mankind. He legally won your freedom for you.

Now, we are in the process of redeeming the bloodlines, the timelines, the history, and rescuing all who were enslaved and used by empowering you to break out of the frame of mind you have all been in to enslave yourselves.

“You have been your own gatekeepers.

“You have been controlled through fear, as they have known that when you are under fear, you focus on protecting yourself, and you manifest timelines where your fears are always in danger of coming true. You project your fears, and if enough people are afraid of the same things, the powerful emotion of fear and agreement with others force ungodly timelines into existence.”

She replied, “Wow!”

She asked, “So, how do I communicate with the other me. And how many other me’s are there?”

“There is only one you. But splinters of you control clone bodies. Your DNA was taken as a young child. They only needed to gather that once. The splinters happened through trauma you experienced and don’t even remember, but you can recognize them if you did therapy to find traumatic memories.

“The clone bodies are grown off-world, and you wake up as a young adult in another place, with no remembrance of your body on Earth. If you had awareness, you would experiment enough to find ways to communicate.

“As long as your human body is alive on earth, the clone body can live. It cannot live (except in special circumstances that are unnecessary to know about now) without the original body thriving on the Earth. There is a spirit and soul connection between the original and the clone. There can only be one or two clones living at a time. The second one usually is offline growing, but in some situations, like when used for hard labor, they allow two to operate.”

She asked, “What am I even hearing right now?”

Abba explained, “I am telling you what you are picking up. Your family member has two clone bodies working as slave labor off-planet. Their anguish is affecting his earthly body. This is the ultimate cause of his chronic fatigue.”

She replied, “Oh, my word, Father. If this is true, how? How do I rescue a clone? I can do things in the spirit realm, but I am unaware of how I can physically rescue physical clones.

“You are powerful to create, my love. You can create timelines. You can create things out of nothing. You are made in my image, and you are entangled with Me. You can go to the Court of Times and Seasons. You can reset time as if it never were.”

She exclaimed, “Oh my.”

Abba continued, “This is a whole new frontier for you. A new paradigm of ministry for Courts of Heaven. Knowledge that will set people free. Knowledge that will unwind tightly woven cords of enslavement that are enslaving others throughout the universe.”

She replied, “Father, this seems nuts. I can hear my mother from childhood, “You have such an active imagination.”

Abba explained, “It is that imagination sanctified that allows you to hear Me so freely. Don’t scorn it. Celebrate it. I will walk you through processes that will set others free. In a way, this is so simple, yet because of the prison humanity lives in (in their minds), it is such a complicated web that holds you down.

“We are setting humanity free and to do that, we must empower you to break free and know the power of who you are, whose you are, and how to walk in that power. You ARE in the order of Melchizedek. You are priests and kings. You are called to communion, as there is no other way with entanglement. [He was referring, in part, to what we understand as “Quantum Entanglement”.] You can’t be entangled and not commune. You are called to step up and take your place. You will catch up to technology. It is time to shed the slavery mindsets, let go of the fear, embrace a relationship with Jesus and Myself, recognize the support of Heaven that you have, and be reborn as a master of your future. Masters serve. Masters love. Masters guide. Masters assist. This is what the sons of God were supposed to do, but failed. Now greatness will be birthed from their failure. Better priests will and are emerging. You (humanity) will step into the vacant seats the bene-elohim held, and you will create, love and guide others through compassion, mercy and always promoting life.”

Our colleague replied, “Father, you know how to comfort my soul – give me vision to see, and I get excited. If this is really true and You are calling me to this, I humbly accept.

Teach me, Abba. What is the first step in freeing my family member from that slave labor?”

First Steps to Freedom from Slave Labor

Abba began, “You will start with the Court of Times and Seasons. His current timeline is not the godly timeline. It is not what is written on his scroll in Heaven, and it is not what was intended for his life. It has been hijacked, stolen, and manipulated for another’s gain.

“You have already done court work sessions for him. He sat with you in a session, and you both repented, blessed, and released appropriately. His record is not in question. His place in the Heavens is not in question. You took him to the Healing Hospital for his energy problems, and that is ultimately culminating in this revelation coming to you (in the right timing) for the purpose of his ultimate healing.

“He is being tormented by a group of beings who are known for their cruelty. They allowed two clones to be made and to work at once to drain him of his energy and fight. They did this so that one is working when the other is resting, and so that they can torment him with the idea of continual enslavement forever. When one body expires, they just grow another and keep it going. When two clone bodies exist at the same time, they experience more weakness and confusion.

His spirit is aware of these other two and can travel to them. You are married and legally one with him, so you can travel with them, see them, and hear them. It was His spirit who showed you the one in the cave laboring. His spirit knows you have the ability with court work to make all of this right. His spirit is working with your spirit, even though it is bypassing his mind. Yet you find that he supports you in all this work. His spirit is helping yours. Do not fear. Here are the steps:

1. Access the Court of Times and Seasons.
2. Ask for the clones scroll to be set with the human’s timeline according to his/her scroll.
3. Ask for his/her golden path to be aligned.
4. Have his/her feet placed on the golden path.
5. Ask for the amendment of “As If It Never Were” to be put in place.

6. Ask for angels to retrieve the splinters and fragments of his/her soul, and to bring them to the Healing Hospital.
7. Check his/her spirit into the Healing Hospital, where Jesus will put the fragments back together into his/her whole being.
8. Ask for angels to guard his/her timeline.
9. Ask for angels to extinguish the ungodly timelines where clones were created of him/her. Those clones are not going to be destroyed in an inhumane way. The part of him/her that is being trafficked and used is gathered, retrieved, and brought back to him/her. The clone bodies will be as if they never were, as the new timeline emerges and the golden path solidifies under his/her feet.

The Experience:

"I request access to the Courts of Times and Seasons, please."

I stepped into the clock shop and approached the counter. The attendant there has a white shirt and a vest on. He has on spectacles and is a clock mechanic. I am aware that he is an angel.

"Well, hello, young lady, how are we doing today?"

"I am here to reset the timelines for _____."

"Let's take a look."

He pulled out what looked like an iPad, tapped it a few times, and pulled up my husband's file. He showed it to me.

"You are here by authority of the Father within you. Check."

"You are here by the authority of the Son within you. Check."

"You are married to him and therefore one with him, and so have authority to speak on his behalf as well as to assist in his timeline management. Check."

"Now I am allowed to reset and change timelines in his favor."

I am requesting that his timelines be reset and updated to match his scroll in Heaven, and for his golden path to be aligned. Please also have his feet placed on his golden path and please add the “Amendment of ‘As if it Never Were” to be put in place over all of his ungodly and unsanctioned timelines.

He touched the iPad a few times, then set it down. “It is done. See how easy that was?”

She replied, “That is it?”

The attendant replied, “Here in Heaven, we don’t like things to be more complicated than they need to be.”

Really, that is it?

He looked down at me over his spectacles and smiled. “Why don’t you go check him into the hospital so he can get stitched back together?”

Our colleague asked, “Thank you for your help. What is your name?”

He replied, “Raphael, dear one. This was a fun engagement with you. I’m sure we will see you here again in the future.”

Court Scenario for Resolving of Clones

I request access to the realms of Heaven.

I request access to the Court of Times and Seasons.

Your Honor, I am requesting that the humans _____ timeline be set according to their scroll.

I ask that their golden pathway be aligned and that their feet be placed on it.

I request that the amendment of “As if it Never Were” be put in place on their behalf.

I request that angels be sent to retrieve the splinters and fragments of their soul, and that they all be brought to the Healing Hospital to be checked in, where Jesus will put the fragments back together into their whole being.

I ask that angels be stationed to guard their timeline. I also request that angels be dispatched to extinguish the ungodly timelines in which clones of them were created.

I request that the part(s) of them that are being trafficked and used be gathered, retrieved, and brought back to them, and that the golden path would solidify under their feet.

We ask that the clone bodies will be as if they never were, as the new timeline emerges and the golden path solidifies under his/her feet.

Raphael: Who is he? What does he do?

What does the name mean?

(Not expecting to encounter a well-recognized angel name, I did a quick Chat GPT search on Raphael. I did not tell Chat what I was doing – this was my exact prompt: Hey chat, I'm just doing some research on Courts of Heaven stuff and wondering if you have or can find any information on Angels, I'm writing about angels. I wanted to find what is known about the angel Raphael. What kind of angel is he? What is he known for? That kind of information?" This was the answer – note the bold-faced type.

In 1 Enoch 20, Raphael is listed as one of the seven archangels who “watch” and execute specific assignments for the Most High. Gabriel, Michael, Uriel, Sariel, Raguel, and Remiel fill out the rest of that sevenfold cadre depending on the manuscript tradition.

His job title is explicit: “Raphael, one of the holy angels who is over the spirits of men.”

Rapha-El literally means: “God restores what was damaged.”

This makes him a steward of human wellbeing, both physical and emotional. He’s not a warrior like Michael. He’s a restorer.

His very name means “God heals” (Rapha-El).

In the Book of Tobit:

- Raphael heals Tobit's blindness.
- He binds the demon Asmodeus, ending a generational cycle of death.
- He removes curses, resets family lines, and restores joy.

He's like the heavenly physician who also carries a sword in his coat pocket just in case. Raphael is deeply tied to:

- generational healing
- breaking curses
- restoring marriages
- reordering lineage disruptions
- ancient Jews saw him as the angel who *undoes what the enemy tried to erase.

He is a physician-jurist, a healer-strategist, the one who makes things right so destiny can move. In 1 Enoch 20, Raphael is placed over the spirits of men.

That phrase doesn't mean "he heals emotions." It means he is assigned to:

- steward destiny
- watch over life paths
- safeguard the human story
- protect what God willed from being derailed by dark beings

This makes Raphael the angelic equivalent of a "Keeper of Timelines."

No other archangel gets that job description.

In today's Courts of Heaven language, Raphael fits naturally into the role of:

- the angel who restores original design
- the angel who cleans up demonic interference
- the angel who brings a person "back into alignment with their scroll"
- the one who escorts people out of cycles of injustice, sickness, and delay

WOAH – CHAT GPT REALLY SAID THAT ABOUT KEEPER OF TIMELINES!

Thank you, Abba. Thank you, Jesus. Thank you, Raphael.

I stepped into Heaven, into the Heavenly Hospital, and called on Erik’s spirit to join me. I signed him in at the hospital, and the desk clerk told me they were expecting him. I handed him a glass of living water and said, “Drink this.”

The hospital's swinging doors opened, and an angelic doctor stood there. I looked at Erik and said, “This is where you get put back together. It isn’t going to hurt.” He smiled and went back with the doctor. I am going to leave him here, knowing that Jesus will put his fragments back together again.

Thank you, Father and Jesus, for the Courts of Heaven. Thank you for providing a way of restoration. Thank you for setting Erik on his golden path and for the destruction of the ungodly timelines. Thank you, Jesus, that you truly restore our souls. I now commit this work to Heaven to be finished.

I will report on any changes or evidence of change that I see in him in the earthly realms.

My spirit knows that it is done. The clones are gone. The timelines have been adjusted.
