

The Room of Uncommon Productivity

When we engaged Heaven earlier this week, we were seeing a bird's-eye view of the ministries complex in the realms of Heaven. We had been hearing from Heaven in various ways that Heaven intends some exponential growth to come forth. Heaven was already preparing.

The expanse of LifeSpring in general is a huge complex now. The business center is massive and Heaven Down Business's building has moved closer to LifeSprings' main building, or has simply expanded to be nearer to Heaven Down Business.

I have spoken of this place before and have used it on many occasions – particularly when writing books. In one case, I wrote 98% of a book in less than 3 days. Similar occurrences have happened since that early experience. I simply asked to step into the Room of Uncommon Productivity, and began to write. A portal for the book opened and I stepped into it and typed. The same pattern can be followed for any endeavor we are faced with.

I remember hearing the story of a Real Estate broker who had a stack of contracts nearly 2 feet high sitting on her desk one morning. This amount of work would typically take days to complete. She began the work and less than eight hours later, the pile had been cleared with all the contracts reviewed and detailed as needed. She had experienced “uncommon productivity”.

In this particular engagement, we were to learn some new things about this room.

Over the last two months we have been implementing several new processes to our Advocacy Sessions, AfterCare, a new membership portal, a new website, as well as other business-related projects. It has packaged with it, a certain degree of stress.

Exponential Growth

We asked Malcolm, who was going with us, “What do we need to do to manage (in the natural) the exponential growth that has been prophesied?”

Not immediately answering he came to Stephanie’s side and said, “Would you like to see the progress that LifeSpring has made?”

Of course we would, so we stepped through the front door of the Business Complex with him, and we were handed a book. Written in the book were pages and pages detailing the exponential growth of the ministry. We handed the book back to the attendant, turned to the right and walked outside onto a beach and sat down in the chairs that were present.

Uncommon Productivity

Malcolm reminded us that when there is exponential growth with that comes a torrent of issues for most and we have had a torrent of issues.

Malcolm asked, “Would you consider setting things in order in the Court of Uncommon Productivity?”

Yes, we were interested, so we went with Malcolm to the Court of Uncommon Productivity. He pointed out that it is not just for ministries or for businesses, but it is also for the people. Malcolm expressed that there is a longing in Heaven for us to step into this space.

Malcolm said, “Tell the people,

There is more for them than against them.

And, “You can utilize the productivity that is here.”

He then instructed us saying, “Align your realms here.”

Align your realms in the Room of Uncommon Productivity

Stephanie began,

I charge my spirit, soul, and body to be in unity and harmony with one another and with the Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

She immediately had the sensation of growing really tall like when she called the Glory to stand up within her in a previous engagement.

Aligning with Others

Stephanie asked, “What does the Father want the people to know?”

He said, “In this place you can align your realms with other people.”

Stephanie remarked, “Are you talking about those that we work with and we're doing a project with?”

She admitted, “I don't know if I want to align my realms with other people. What does that look like, Malcolm?”

He explained, “It is like having the same mindset – a co-laboring.”

Stephanie confessed, “I'll admit Malcolm, I'm resistant to aligning my realms with people that come into the ministry.”

He said, “It's not that. It's those that we co-labor with.”

RonHorner.com

Not really knowing what to do, Malcolm instructed her to step up to the desk.

Aligning Your Calendar

Someone at the desk said, "So you've had trouble with the calendar in the past."

She admitted that had been the case.

He said, "Now align your realms with Ron – it creates a cohesiveness. Then align your (overall) realm with the calendar."

Stephanie imagined Ron standing in one spot, a few feet away, and the calendar attached to each of us – that's the cohesiveness. It is aligning with your realms to bring forth a cohesiveness, but not like creating a soul tie.

Stephanie prayed, "I'm asking that the LifeSpring calendar be aligned with all of those that work for LifeSpring in this place of uncommon productivity so we can get things done."

She continued by adding the many features and products we use to operate as a ministry.

Once she prayed, she began seeing a see a lot of men and women in white that were now coming to the LifeSpring complex and began working on our behalf.

Malcolm pointed out that, "This is where time is not stolen. Time is rectified or governed in this place."

Time is brought into submission or order.

She added to her prayer, "We would like for time to be in order and rectified here in Jesus' name."

She then saw an explosion of light and glory!

We thanked Malcolm for his help, and he then said, “In all new growth, this is where you bring it.”

She continued praying,

We would like for all of the new growth, however that is to be brought into this Room of Uncommon Productivity where we have more help than we can think or imagine for things to come online and for Heaven to be able to work out the issues that we are unable to in the natural to resolve. Issues where it has a striving and time is stolen.

He said, “Now we can get down to business. Now we can start teaching the people.

Stephanie commented, “Well, it seems very simple, yet we didn't. Can we have time restored and redeemed, where we've lost so much time?”

He said, “Why not?”

Stephanie again prayed,

“We thank you, Father, that you redeemed the time, and we ask for it in Jesus name.”

Now, let's apply this to your life on a personal level. I think you have the gist of how to apply this to your work or ministry situations. Think about a personal situation that you need some enhanced productivity in.

1. First, request access to the Room of Uncommon Productivity.
2. Step into the Room of Uncommon Productivity
3. From within that place, align your realms: spirit, soul, and body with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
4. Sense the alignment taking place.

RonHorner.com

5. Bring the situation you need help with before you. If there is someone else who you can join forces with, have them join with you and align yourself with them and then with the situation.
6. Begin to work on the situation from within the Room of Uncommon Productivity.