

The Strike Force Method

As we engaged Heaven this time, we found ourselves in the strangest place. Many times, we see strange things, but this engagement was even stranger than usual. We were in the belly of the whale with Jonah.

We greeted him and heard him say, "This is much better than the first time I did this."

With a scenario this strange, we knew he had something important to teach us. We weren't disappointed. He asked, "Where do you think I learned the strategy of what I needed to do in Nineveh?"

In the belly of the whale, he received the strategy for Nineveh. Even though he ended up in the whale's belly due to disobedience, Jonah said, "Strategies can come from the oddest places."

Stephanie replied, "Well, we are willing to step into the oddest place to receive strategy."

Jonah reminded me that Heaven had said my responsibility was to drive the bus. Some people would get on, while some would get off. I was to focus on driving the bus. Some will come back around.

Suddenly, we found ourselves with Jonah in the Strategy Room. Jonah explained that the finer things are found in the Strategy Room. He picked up a quill pen and said, "Take, for instance, this quill."

He continued, "This is a strategy. A quill is a strategy. It is the written things from the hand of God that are a true treasure. Would you like a written treasure that is a strategy?"

As he said those words, Stephanie heard the words, "Colossians 3."

¹ Christ's resurrection is your resurrection too. This is why we are to yearn for all that is above, for that's where Christ sits enthroned at the place of all power, honor, and authority!

² Yes, feast on all the treasures of the heavenly realm and fill your thoughts with heavenly realities, and not with the distractions of the natural realm. (Emphasis mine)

There are distractions of the natural realm. We had been busy in the last few weeks doing what Stephanie refers to as “peopleing,” where we deal with persons and situations affecting the ministry. We recognized that those situations were all distractions.

Jonah handed her the quill, and she then saw a Bond of Distraction. He asked Stephanie if she wanted to strike it through. She replied, “Yes, she did.”

He replied, “Well, as a governing son, strike it.”

She immediately took the pen and struck through the Bond of Distraction she was seeing in front of her.

Jonah continued, “It is Heaven's perfect plan for you as governing sons to be able to strike through these bonds.”

It is Heaven's perfect plan for you as governing sons to be able to strike through these bonds.

Stephanie asked, “Is this a new part of the bonds? Tell me what you want to tell me because my soul got excited for a second.”

Jonah said, “Will you not be governors? Are you not governors?”

Stephanie replied, “We are.”

Jonah then showed her the Bond of Derision. Derision is contemptuous, ridiculing, or mocking.

Jonah asked her if she wanted to strike it through.

Of course, she did, so she said, “I do. I strike it through, as a son.”

Then she paused and said, “Jonah, this is typically done in the courts.”

He asked, "Are you not kings and priests? Are you backed by the courts?"

Stephanie replied, "Yes."

Jonah continued, "This is step two."

As he said those words, Jesus stepped in and began to speak, "When you do things in my name, are they not done? There is a point in time when the sons govern in the courts. This is the appointed time. You are kings and priests. You are governing sons, and you will have the ability, the resources, and the time."

Stephanie remarked, "I saw time as a clock on our side, an entity on our side to strike."

Jesus continued, "Step one is getting your feet wet in the Courts of Heaven. Step two uses the Strike Force Method, with the wave of the quill, done in My name, to strike these that have come against the sons."

Stephanie commented, "Jesus. I don't want to bring confusion, and I know that you don't bring confusion, but how do we strategize and lay this out for people to understand that they must walk in the Courts of Heaven under the first step and before the Just Judge as step one, learning and that then they can move to this step two?"

Not sure she was phrasing the question adequately; she turned to me. I asked, "Jonah, how would you have us phrase it?"

He asked, "Are you given the keys to the car when you first want to drive?"

Stephanie responded, "No."

Jonah continued, "This quill is a key."

I asked, "Would it be fair to say that this is not for all the sons to know at this point because they're not ready?"

Stephanie inserted, "He's showing me to teach the Seniors (Senior Advocates), but the Seniors would use it in front of people."

Jonah added, "There's an earned right and a privilege to the sons who have walked through the Courts of Heaven and the realms of Heaven. This is a strategy of Heaven. Consider this to be the next steps. This is attached to the stars."

Stephanie asked, "Is it going to be a little bit before this is released?"

Jonah replied, "Sooner than you think."

Jesus, thank you that you have seen us, walked us through enough of the Courts of Heaven to bring us to the next step. Help us to understand this more fully. I ask for the Spirit of Understanding and the Spirit of Knowledge, the Spirit of Wisdom, and Spirit of Counsel.

Stephanie then received a download describing what to do. She explained, "I just saw a total download, so on Saturday when I had to do my bond registry with a quill in hand. As I'm doing my own bond registry, I get to strike it through the ungodly bonds and then present it to the court, but I've governed. This is done in the Court of Titles and Deeds. Use the same protocol.

He also showed me a picture of us being in some smaller courts and us being the ones with the gavel in hand and the quill. We have been called judges before.

I reminded her of the story of Paul in Corinthians when it came to the guy sleeping with his stepmother, Paul said, "I have judged this matter." And then, he instructed the elders on what they were supposed to do.

Jonah added, "I was called as a judge, to judge Nineveh, but the Father relented. Don't do what I do. I was called as a judge, and then I was angry that there was no judgment."

Stephanie commented, "Is there a fine line there?"

Jonah continued, "It is the heart of the matter. You don't have to be put in the belly of a whale to be a governing son."

Stephanie continued, "He's basically saying, 'Don't do what I did,' and he keeps telling me that the quill is useful. It's a useful tool, and the written word is the reason why we, as governing sons, can strike through things. It's a weapon. This quill is a weapon."

Psalm 45:1:

My heart is overflowing with a good theme; I recite my composition concerning the King; my tongue is the pen of a ready writer. (Emphasis mine)

Revelation 2:12:

And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write, 'These things says He who has the sharp two-edged sword. (Emphasis mine)

Amos 3:11:

Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: "An adversary shall be all around the land; He shall sap your strength from you, And your palaces shall be plundered."

Amos describes the process. The enemy when he is all around your land is trying to dig up dirt on you, which would bring us back to the derision part. Another term for derision is laughingstock."

Jonah then handed the quill to Stephanie and said, "Use the quill, Stephanie."

She hesitated, so Jonah said, "Time is in your hands. Time is a tool. The Word is a tool. The books are laid before you. While you are in judgment, there is no threat except to the enemy and his devices. In time, you will judge accordingly. In time, you will feast at the table, and the enemy will be laid bare before you. This tool is a Second Heaven Strategy."

Stephanie asked, "Why Second Heaven?"

I replied, "Because not everybody is qualified to use it."

Stephanie then had a vision, "I saw myself coming and sitting at the judge's bench, quill in hand, with a book laid before me. I saw the judgment from the accuser of the brethren against some people, and I saw Counsel to my right. I saw Wisdom to my left and the Great Judgment Seat behind me. It's as if the court I'm in is at His feet, and He is a covering and a shield, but your heart must be in full submission to what His court orders and ordains. 'You only do what you see your Father doing' is what I hear."

Jesus spoke and said, "These are the next steps. I will teach you to hear what the highest court hears. I will teach you to rule and govern. The authority that you have is at His feet and nowhere else. Those who do this, out of turn, have a judgment against them. This is a place of authority established for the sons, and it shall not be wielded wrongly or cut off your head. These are the next steps."

Stephanie explained, "We are going to be going to a conference room, and we are going to be over the next revelation; however long Heaven does this, they're going to lay it out.

"I saw us sitting, and I even saw Moses, Abraham, and others that were judges on the earth, and they are going to lay out a plan. I saw it as contractual. I saw a heading, not just bullet points, but things under that heading laid out along with the warnings like the first heading and, at the end, our warnings. There is a scripture, I don't know where it is, but I was reminded of it that those of us who are in positions, even those governing the land, the judgment that comes against us if we don't rule properly, what is that? There is such a reverential fear that comes with this.

1 Corinthians 2:14-15,

But the natural man does not receive the things of the spirit of God for they are foolishness to him, nor can he know them because they are spiritually discerned, but he who is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is rightly judged by no one.

Jonah said, "This is big!"

Stephanie added, "And when he said 'big,' I saw the giant whale. Jonah patted me on the shoulder and said, 'But nothing is too hard for you.' I know and understand that over the next few weeks and months, we can ask to sit down, and the council of four will help instruct us on this matter. I saw it laid out, so I'm asking the Father to prepare me, my spirit, and my soul to sit down to hear what Heaven is saying and prepare the documents of how this will be laid out before us for these next steps. Thank you, Father."
